2. In order to avoid confusion, I propose that we name the course, "Preparing for Overseas Assignment." It will be run in two segments. The first segment, lasting for two days and patterned after the old OO, will include legal, medical, cover and security problems which Agency employees may encounter overseas, as well as some exposure to the inter-cultural problems encountered in working and living among foreigners. All personnel proceeding abroad will take this segment. The second segment will follow directly for a day and a half and will focus primarily on orienting employees who will be working in the [REDACTED] setting.

3. CCS is in process of making attendance by new [REDACTED] mandatory and is getting out a Headquarters notice to this effect. The first running of the new "POA" is scheduled for Tuesday, 9 April through mid-day 12 April 1974. [REDACTED] will be the course chairman. We will plan to put the new course on about each six to eight weeks during the summer, at which time the posting of personnel abroad tends to slacken off. I expect that there will be some modifications in the course after it has been conducted several times and will report to you on its progress.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

PREPARING FOR OVERSEAS ASSIGNMENT

PHASE I--OVERSEAS SERVICE FOR CIA

The objectives of this phase of the course are
(a) to provide an understanding of problems, including cover, medical, security and legal, which CIA employees
may encounter during service abroad; and (b) to orient employees going overseas to important cultural differences which they may encounter in working and living among foreigners.
